Reader's Opinions

Exhaustive analysis of the political aspect of the war, with a heavy conservative bias. The author has a high level of expertise, and offers a serious scholarly education. Originally I was not familiar with most of the characters of the time and I felt bogged down by the intellectualism. Eventually I began to get a good grasp on what...

This was a great book! It should be required reading for anyone studying the Viet Nam War. It is a travesty how history has been re-written by the liberals/progressives both inside and outside of America. I highly recommend this book.
