Peek Inside the Book

Death, I discovered that day, is not frightening, because it is utterly still. And it is still because death, when it comes, is always over. There's only terror in it if you fear it and ever since my first death, Wes' death, I have never feared it. It is simply the end of a story, and if you've...

Wars become history all too soon and are forgotten all too soon as well, before the lessons can be learned. Michael Morpurgo, Alone on a Wide Wide Sea

Reader's Opinions

Alone on a Wide Wide sea is about a boy, an orphan, named Arthur, who his separated from his sister when he is only a very small child. The book is very peculiar because Michael Morpurgo has made the character go into the future. He talks a bit about his childhood and then jumps into adulthood. Arthur, a young orphan is cast on a ship...
