Peek Inside the Book

What a strange world it was when a girl who wanted to go to school had to defy militants with machine guns - as well as her own family. Malala Yousafzai, I Am Malala: How One Girl Stood Up for Education and Changed the World

Reader's Opinions

Malala refused to believe girls should be denied an education. Why should girls not be allowed to attend school? It's their right. So Malala spoke in favour of educating girls during a time when it was very dangerous to do so....

Thank you to Orion for providing me with this book in return for an honest review! Firstly, I just want to mention that this memoir is the 'younger readers' version of her memoir titled, 'I Am Malala'. I think that older children in schools should definitely be reading this book and...
