

FINDING WOODS

Horror writer Matt Mott invites you to experience three stories that will keep you awake and still and breathing. Breathing. Breathing. Meet a family torn apart by a mother drowned. She will not let her son be, and her grieving husband will not let her go. Meet a young boy on a mission in the woods. He thinks his imaginary friend may be a real witch, or at least her ghost. Either way, he thinks he knows where to find her. And meet a woman obsessed with her shower....

Reader's Opinions

Excellent writing. Nice and creepy, the way I like my horror stories. If you've been to Miramichi, it's a must read. If you like the best of Stephen King, this'll be up your proverbial haunted alley.

Wow! Not my usual genre of leisure reading, but extremely pleasurable to lose myself in the writing and the characters on a warm summer night. I was hooked from page one and "got lost in the woods" with these three stories. If you've travelled through the province of New Brunswick, the place names will certainly be familiar. Check it...
