Reader's Opinions

As a true history buff, and having studied WWII and history of the 20th century Europe, I always look forward to discovering new books that would educate me in the spheres which I'm still unfamiliar with. Abandoned by the Vatican was definitely one of those very well-written and incredibly informative books. Its...

Abandoned by the Vatican is a quite different book that I normally read. The book is on a strong and touchy subject of religion, its traditions and behavior of the Vatican, its popes, cardinals and its bishops. It brings to highlight the facts that you may not necessarily know about religious places and people involved....
