Peek Inside the Book

People who don't like doing things together probably...well probably shouldn't get married. Luanne Rice, The Edge of Winter

this was okay. it made me cry, which probably means i've officially crossed over to the bad place. it was sappy, and too simple, and not that well written. and all the diving references were wrong. which leads me to believe her Uboat history...

The is the story if a mother and teen-aged daughter trying to get over a broken marriage. It is also the story of a man who lost his son in the war in Iraq and his estrangement from his own father. All share the love of their home, the southern coast of Rhode Island, the beach, and the birds that live there. They are working together...
