Reader's Opinions

This book is just about 11 years old, but the author is still publishing books, and very well should be. I consider this book to be fantasy. A librarian in a Children's library told me it was considered "animal fantasy." This story is about a giant Panda bear named...

Personal response: Karl, Addy and Michael meet Stillwater, a giant Panda who teaches them life truths through stories (short meditations). The three stories Panda tells the children makes them reconsider why they do the things they do. In other words...
