Reader's Opinions

What was bad becomes worseThis is the most ridiculous crap I have read since I read Twilight. All I feel from this author is her trying to hard to capture every fandom that has been successful in the past in her own story. I found the characters to be extremely annoying and unlike able. She also references Harry Potter far too much...

As always another excellent job by Heather. Heather set the stage in Sam I Am (recommended to read first), with characters, places and time. Picks right up in Secretly Sam, keeping the story fast paced and well written. It's engaging, the...
