Reader's Opinions

Great book to read, especially with your teenager! It is definitely Catholic based, but it upholds any Christian standards of moral living.

While I had originally had it as a resource for teaching Sunday School (many years ago), I just read it... really so I could read it and give it back to church. (yeah). Anyway, it covers a wide range of topics with real questions from teenagers, and with good Catholic answers. I would say the way the author answers the questions are...
