

M AGAINST M

Self-proclaimed outsider, Arthur Sonntag, has proudly placed himself on the fringes of a contemptible society. But now, after desperately trying to follow in his literary heroes' footsteps and write something immortal, he finds himself struggling to write. Piece by piece, crippled by his mediocrity and consumed by his lust for...

Reader's Opinions

If you like, or love 1984, this book is for you. Declan Tan starts us off in a haze of philosophical musings within an oppressive political context that brings to mind historical regimes and future possibilities. There is a great balance and blend of insight and adventure, where at the end of...
