

LIVE WRITING: BREATHING LIFE INTO YOUR WORDS

This book is based on the simple idea that every writer has a "tool box." Instead of awls and hammers, a writer's toolbox contains words, imagination, a love of books, a sense of story, and ideas for how to make the writing live and breathe. I wrote this book to give you some practical strategies to throw into your toolbox. I hope you'll try them, because these are...

Reader's Opinions

Ralph Fletcher's text has empowered me to guide students into bringing life into their writing and into my own writing. Through this text he provides strategies to help bring characters, settings, voice and conflict alive. To have it jump off the page. Fletcher is bringing excitement into learning while teaching valuable lifelong strategies...

This is a great book for somebody who already has writing skills. It offers great pointers. I was looking for a book to teach somebody how to write.
