

A GATHERING OF FINCHES

Lottie, my Coos Indian maid, called it "the going over place." Cassie Hendrick Stearns crossed the Oregon coastal tidewaters in 1899 to begin her life beside the prosperous entrepreneur Lewis Simpson on Oregon's wild and rugged coast. After her marriage, Cassie seems to have it all: an adoring husband,...

Reader's Opinions

anyone especially if you've been to Shore Acres

Wonderful story of the settling of the lumber industry in the central coastal area of Oregon, Coos Bay. Great history of how it developed and the building of Shore Acres (a must see if you've never had the...
