Reader's Opinions

Lovely radio adaptation of the first novel. Those who also love the movie will find this quite close to the characters in the movies, though I find the Anne character sometimes a little irritating (trying to act just that little too much).

Audio book read by Kate Burton. She embodies Anne with just the right amount of youthful exuberance and chattiness, Marilla as very serious but caring, and Matthew as shy but absolutely smitten by this curious 11-year-old orphan. Anne manages to get herself into many scrapes which she blows up to humiliating proportions. I don't remember...
