Peek Inside the Book

No one would have known, from how he held my hand, [that] over the years of heartache he had hatched a plot to change my life forever. He held his grip and would not let me go....

Then I traveled. Quite a bit, in fact. You have to stockpile a few beautiful vistas in your memory, Pearlie. In case we're rationed again. Andrew Sean Greer, The Story of a Marriage

Reader's Opinions

I really enjoyed getting into the head of the narrator (wife) of this book. The writing was well done and I felt what she felt as I learned her story. Marriage is...

I wanted to liked this book more than I did. It has earned a great many accolades, including earning a place on several Best Book of the Year lists, and such rave reviews as:"Bewitching ... A book whose linguistic prowess ad raw storytelling power is almost disruptive to the reader. It's too good to put down and yet each passage is...
