

BENEDICT ARNOLD: PATRIOT AND TRAITOR

In the first major biography of Benedict Arnold in 35 years, prize-winning journalist and historian Willard Sterne Randall unravels the web of personal drama and political intrigue that led to the most famous betrayal in American history. Citing documents long believed lost, Randall explores the full story of Arnold's brilliant but agonized career as patriot and soldier and his ultimate treasonous decision. 24 pages of photographs and maps.

Peek Inside the Book

Envy and malice are indefatigable. Where they have not invention enough to frame new slanders, or the slanders newly framed are found totally inadequate to their purpose, they will call in the feeble aid of old calumnies Willard Sterne...

Reader's Opinions

An ok overview of Arnold but less scholarly than hoped. Although I try to focus on content, I have to say this: either the tool used to convert it to an...

Very detailed and informative.
