

A CAPTAIN'S HEART

Wealth and social standing mean nothing to Captain Kyle Bryden. To his family, however, they are everything. For years it has driven Kyle and his family apart. He longs for understanding from his parents, but most of all he yearns for them to accept the truth behind his faith. When his father sends him on a voyage to collect two family guests, it only complicates matters,...

Reader's Opinions

A Captain's Heart is the best work yet in the Pirates and Faith series. Molly Evangeline's writing skills improve by leaps and bounds with each book she writes. The third book in the series, A Captain's Heart centers around a different main cast than that of the first two books. But I didn't mind that one bit, as the original characters...

Sorry everyone I haven't written a review in a long time. I usually am looking forward to doing reviews, and I think of tidbits of things to put in it. Lately though I just can't think of what to put in them.:(I usually can't write a good review a lot of times till my second Read through but I shall do my best for "A Captains heart"...
