Peek Inside the Book

on 21 June 1982, Diana gave birth to William in St Marys Hospital, Paddington. He was two weeks early. Prince Charles watched the birth, the first royal father to do so. Whatever the bad feelings of the past few months, this was an undeniably happy and bonding moment, even Tim Clayton, Diana: Story of a Princess

He didnt change his bachelor ways. She wanted him to stay at home with her and the children. There were tantrums and hysterics. She challenged him it was the first time he had been challenged. It was the first time he had met his equal he was surrounded by yes-men. Diana accused Charless friends of being sycophants, but she was her own worst enemy too.
